Dear Mr. Amarel:

This letter is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated June 21, 2019 to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB). Your request sought:

[A]ll email records sent by Mick Mulvaney containing the non-case-sensitive key-string of "CAB " or "Consumer Advisory Board" from May 1, 2019 to June 15, 2019.

We conducted a reasonable search within the Office of Technology and Innovation for records that would be responsive to your request. Unfortunately, we were unable to identify or locate any responsive records at this time.

While an adequate search was conducted, you have the right to appeal this determination that no records exist within the CFPB that would be responsive to your request. If you choose to file an appeal, you must do so within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Your appeal must be in writing, signed by you or your representative, and should contain the rationale for the appeal. You may send your appeal via the mail (address below), email (foia@consumerfinance.gov) or fax (1-855-FAX-FOIA (329-3642)).
